

Bus Funding Application
Los Angeles Museum of the Holocaust

Thanks to a generous gift from the late Tom Adler, a major San Diego civil rights attorney, the Los Angeles Museum of the Holocaust is pleased to offer bus funding for San Diego schools during the 2011-2012 school year. Bus funding will not be considered without a confirmed date to visit the Museum. You may book reservations online at <http://www.lamoth.org/>. The application form must be submitted three weeks before the desired date.

Please submit a letter with the application form that explains how your students will benefit directly from the field trip and how the experience will benefit your curriculum.

Guidelines and Eligibility

- Only schools from San Diego County are eligible to apply for funds.
- The grant will only cover transportation costs to and from the school and the Los Angeles Museum of the Holocaust.
- Schools arrange their transportation and are reimbursed for cost. Reimbursements should be received within 30 days of the Museum's receipt of the invoice.
- Applications must accompany a request letter. Your reservation must be confirmed to be eligible for bus transportation reimbursement.
- The grant will not pay for buses and/or cancellation fees/penalties if any group cancels its visit or in the event of cancellation, fails to cancel its transportation agreement with its bus company.
