VOICES OF HISTORY: LAMOTH FILM WORKSHOP

Join us for a special two-week workshop to learn about Holocaust education and remembrance, improve skills in oral history and interviewing practices, and familiarize yourself with documentary filmmaking in LAMOTH's Voices of History Film Workshop.

In this program, students in 7th-12th grade will have the opportunity to work with mentor filmmakers to create video testimonies and short documentary films on the Survivors' life stories.

Students do not need to have prior filmmaking knowledge, just an interest and motivation in learning from the last generation of Holocaust Survivors.

To sign up, visit
